Interpretive Lens to the Literary Macrostructure and Metanarratives of the Matthean Gospel

作者 Brown, Kenneth

貢獻者 Bekker, Corné J.

摘要 Scholarly consensus remains elusive regarding the literary structure of the Matthean Gospel. However, when viewed through the various methods of form criticism and literary analysis, overwhelming didactic evidence emerges to offer considerable insight into the thematic emphasis and theology of the Matthean witness. Additionally, the rhetorical devices implemented by the evangelist provide a critical framework for the Gospel and interpretive lens, revealing broader metanarratives. Methodological literary analysis of Matthew's Gospel demonstrates various didactic patterns of parallel repetition, symmetry, inclusio, chiasmus, leitmotifs, and ring

The screenshot illustrates the process of importing specific documents and full-text files into a Zotero library. The interface shows search results for the keyword "spiritually" on the Taylor & Francis website. A Zotero Item Selector dialog is open, listing search results with checkboxes. A red box labeled "2" highlights the "Select All" button, and another red box labeled "3" highlights the "OK" button. A red arrow points from the "OK" button to a "Save to" dialog box. In this dialog, a red box labeled "4" highlights the folder "我的文獻庫" (My Library), which is selected. A red box labeled "1" highlights the Zotero icon in the browser's toolbar.
